Milton Sills' Sea Picture At Torrance

'As Man Desires' Will Be Shown on Screen Saturday

Milton Sills in "As Man Desires"

Milton Sills goes to sea again. He is Captain John Clay, of the two-masted pearl schooner "Lark," in First National's "As Man Desires," at the Torrance theatre Saturday.

Gone are the bushy hirsute adornments and trappings of "The Sea Hawk."

Sills in "As Man Desires" is the gaunt, weatherbeaten captain of a South Sea Island pearl schooner, the master of "Forbidden Island," the mystery island of the Tahiti group. He is still the doughty fighter. The ruffian seamen who frequent the water front dives of Tahiti fear him for his grim silence and brute strength, especially after he conquers "Gorilla" Baggley, the bully of Tahiti, in a terrific encounter. Viola Dana, who is co-featured in the drama in the role of a half-wild native dancing girl, falls in love with him, and Sills takes her with the intention of making her into a "fine lady," as a rebuff to the memory of the girl whose fabled infidelity has brought about his disgrace and exile.

Buster Keaton at the Lomita

Scene from Harry Carey in "Tiger Thompson"

Friday and Saturday will be comedy days at the Lomita, when the feature will be Buster Keaton's latest comedy, "Seven Chances," taken from the famous Belasco success of that name. It is the story of a young man who, in order to win a legacy of $7,000,000, has to get married by 7 o'clock of the same evening he hears of the picture. Some idea of what the picture is like may be gleaned from the fact that Buster has 17 leading women. In the cast are T. Roy Barnes, Ruth Dwyer, Snitz Edwards, Jules Cowles, and the other 16 prospective brides. "Idaho" and a news reel will also be shown. The vaudeville program for Sunday will include Manuel and Vida Perez, a dancing team well known on the big circuits. They have just completed a long engagement at the Green Mill cafe, Los Angeles. Tom Callaway will offer a black-face monologue, and Irene Jones will offer new songs sung right. The picture on the program will be Harry Carey in "Tiger Thompson."

"Tiger Thompson" is a life tale of the real west. Its people are real people and act as real people would act. There is a tender romance, and in the development of that romance there are numerous logical thrills. The plot is tense because the drama is sincere. There is action every minute. And, above all, there is the lovable, human cowboy Galahad characterization of Harry Carey, who has you laughing and sympathizing with him one moment and cheering him on to success the next.

Cy Haskins' Country Store will be the feature attraction for Monday only. The picture attraction will be "Wife of the Centaur," featuring Jack Gilbert, Eleanor Boardman and Alleen Pringle. The story is based upon a familiar plot, the theory being that every man is a "centaur"; that he is half beast and half man, a battlefield in which the war of conflicting emotions is always being waged.

Don't miss the Sunday school. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Sermon, "For Mother and Home." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. "The Curse of God."
B. Y. P. U.—a great army of young folks who believe in the church, the Bible, and the Christian life. They take part in every Sunday service. They are training for future service in the name of Christ, as well as for the United States of America.

Wednesday night is our great midweek meeting. We keep the home fires burning. Every Christian needs this special fellowship with God's people in midweek. Come to pray and go out to rejoice.
Every man, woman and child feels the spirit of Mother's Day. The prayers and love of our mothers rule supreme in the hearts of millions of big, strong men today. Her voice may be silent forever, but mother yet lives in the life of her sons and daughters in the power of her influence. That will never die. Why not make Sunday a day of worship just for her sake?
